

Once you have logged in to Blogger using your Google account, Click on the button marked "Create Your Blog Now"

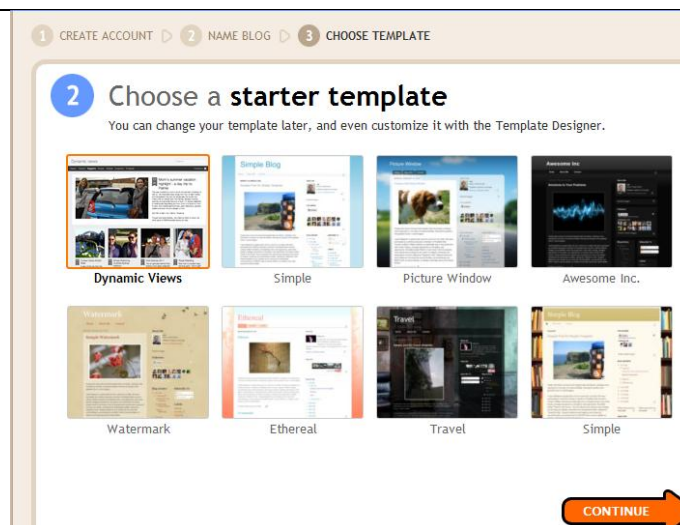

The screenshot shows the Blogger Dashboard for a user named lisa.young@scottsdalecc.edu. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for Dashboard, My Account, Help, and Sign out. Below this, a "New!" notification banner promotes the Amazon Associates integration. The main content area is divided into two sections: "Unknown" (with links for View Profile, Edit Profile, Edit Photo, and Edit Notifications) and "Manage Blogs". In the "Manage Blogs" section, a message states "You are not an author on any blogs yet, create one now to start posting!" with a prominent blue button labeled "CREATE YOUR BLOG NOW" highlighted by a red arrow. A link "Can't find your blog? See 'My blog disappeared from my account!'" is also present.

1. Give your blog a title.
2. Give it a web address/URL. There can be no spaces or special characters.
3. Check the Availability of the URL.

This screenshot shows the "Name your blog" step in the Blogger setup process. It includes a progress bar at the top with steps: 1 CREATE ACCOUNT, 2 NAME BLOG, and 3 CHOOSE TEMPLATE. The main form has two fields: "Blog title" (with a red box labeled '1' around the input field) and "Blog address (URL)" (with a red box labeled '2' around the input field). Below the URL field, there's a "Check Availability" link and a note: "The URL you select will be used by visitors to access your blog. Learn more". A red arrow labeled '3' points to the "Check Availability" link. At the bottom right, there's a large orange "CONTINUE" button.

Select a template for the look and feel of your blog.

This screenshot shows the "Choose a starter template" step in the Blogger setup process. It includes a progress bar at the top with steps: 1 CREATE ACCOUNT, 2 NAME BLOG, and 3 CHOOSE TEMPLATE. The main content area displays a grid of eight different blog templates: Dynamic Views, Simple, Picture Window, Awesome Inc., Watermark, Ethereal, Travel, and Simple. At the bottom right, there's a large orange "CONTINUE" button.
